

Morphology HW due Wednesday April 25th, 2007 – TYPED:

I. File 5.2

- exercises 2 and 6

II. File 5.6

- exercise 1.1 (Turkish)

- remainder of this worksheet

III. Determine whether the words in each group are related to each other by inflection or by derivation.

1. go, goes, going, gone
2. discover, discovery, discoverer, discoverable
3. inventor, inventor's, inventors, inventors'
4. democracy, democrat, democratic, democratize

IV. Here are a few cases where a new word is needed. Make up a new word for each blank according to the instructions.

1. Bubble-wrap is a noun, right? Use conversion to make a verb that means 'to wrap something in bubble-wrap':

You'd better _____ that ornament so that it won't get broken.

2. Use a compound to name the string of cheese stretching from a slice of hot pizza to one's mouth.

As the _____ hung precariously from my lip, our eyes met.

3. Use derivational affixation for being able to be contacted:

My academic advisor is not very _____ these days; she is working in the field.

4. Use an alternation for the past tense of 'google':

It was easy to find the information on the web; I just _____ the business name. (don't use affixation! ;))

5. Use reduplication for the continuous effort & movement of the train.

The train chugs along → The little train will _____ all the way across the country.

6. Use suppletion to make the verb past tense.

You told me to go, so I _____.